Short Programme Title
Advanced Facials

1. Type of Programme

- Short Learning Programme (SLP)

Short programmes upgrade skills and knowledge to ensure success in a chosen field of learning, but are not credit bearing.

2. Description

The Short Programme in Advanced Facials is a progression from the Manual Facials short programme. The programme will cover all main electrical facial equipment. This includes the theory and practical use of the Brush Machine, Vacuum Suction, Iontophoresis (Galvanic), Faradic, Microcurrent and High Frequency.

The purpose of the Short Programme is to equip the student with the advanced knowledge and practical experience to work in the Health and Skincare industry as a professional Facial Electrical Therapist. With experience there is the possibility of applying to onboard spas on the cruise ships as a Facial Electrical Therapist, provided that an international qualification is obtained.

3. Admission requirements

- Successful completion of the short programme in Manual Facials presented by Dermatech.
- OR Successful completion of the Dermatech Higher Certificate: Health and Skincare (NQF 5), equivalent to the qualification.
- Alternatively, non-standard access may be granted through Recognition of Prior Learning by the institution to individual applicants.
- Admission may be subject to an interview with an academic staff member.

4. Duration

The programme duration consists 250 total hours, including practical, theory and case studies. Theory is completed in a self-study manner, while practical training is face to face and case studies are completed in a private capacity (the Dermatech equipment can be made available on campus at the request of the student – booking is essential). Practical hours are to be recorded to meet requirements. Case studies need to be completed within 4 months from course completion. Dermatech practical training is scheduled at specific times of the year. Programmes are offered during week days. After successful completion of the assessment, certification will take place.

5. Textbooks and study material

All prescribed material and kit is included. A list of student material and textbooks if necessary will be provided by Dermatech campus academic department.

6. Pricing
